Who we are and what we do

Formed informally seven years ago, Communities Connect (CC) is a network of concerned community based and statewide organizations and individuals. Our members are committed to working together at the local level and collectively advocating at the state and national level to improve health care access in Washington State. Through collaboration CC members promote solutions to identified local issues and removal of barriers to health care access, share best practices and provides collective, bipartisan support and strength to address issues at the state policy and agency level. Our mission is to:

- Foster and support grassroots efforts to promote health systems change.
- Support information sharing among communities on topics such as: creative solutions to health care access
- Promote access to a statewide network of local communities working on common health care issues.
- Develop shared policy objectives for systems change at the local, state and federal levels.

By aligning state and local community resources, we achieve common goals together!

Communities Connect is a nonpartisan group that meets regularly. Membership is open to any individual or community based or statewide organization whose focus is on working with their community to address and improve health care for the people of their community.

Communities Connect promotes the sharing of best practices across the state and uses the combined voice of its membership to affect changes in state programs that support community solutions to health care access. Current CC membership represents 28 of the 39 counties in Washington State.

CC members include: Benton Franklin Community Health Alliance, Thurston-Mason County Medical Society, CHOICE Regional Health Network, Community Choice Healthcare, Community-Minded Enterprises, King County Project Access, King County Children's Health Initiative, Skagit Valley Hospital, Spokane County Project Access, Whatcom Alliance for Healthcare Access, WithinReach
